ADVERTISING.

Notices of known and unknown persons, and other notices, are published at the rate of 10 cents per line for the first week, and 5 cents per line for each succeeding week.

JOB WORK.

Notices for Plain and Fancy Job Printing equal to those of any establishment west of the Missouri river.

All persons having advertisements in this paper and desiring them discontinued will please make it known at the business office, where they will be properly attended to. We cannot hold ourselves responsible for advertisements continuing in the paper unless notice is thus given.

No claims are allowed against any copy of the GAZETTE for any reason, unless the same are made in the office of the publisher, and then only if made in not later than Thursday next.

All advertising agents are respectfully notified that we do not want any advertising sent to the office of the publisher, but to the office of the manager.

For a "purity" party, the Campbell party is about as pure as any party we have ever seen of.

This state has undoubtedly a fine reputation on the national field, but the governorship is in doubt.

This city gave three hundred and ninety-seven majority for the regular ticket. Most of the mugwumps were in the Second ward.

John Hickey is a better justice of the peace than any other justice in the city. He is a better overseer than any overseer in the city. He is a better constable than any constable in the city.

It was discouraging for some of our ward workers on going to the polls on Tuesday morning to find men engaged to work for the anti-returning board ticket with Campbell tickets in their hands.

Cazain W. F. Wilder has already been selected as the candidate for mayor next spring. He should see that he controls the precinct committee, and then he will have the trouble of trying to carry the primaries.

The sympathy of the whole community will be with Marshal Smith and Collector Wolfe who will soon be turned out on the cold world. The commission of Charles D. Ford for the San Carlos agency should be hurried up as March 4th will soon be here.

We don't speak too highly of the men who stood at the polls fighting for the Currier-Kittredge and Gales tickets. Under the circumstances, there was no sign of being beaten. The only disgrace was to fight at all. Submission to the wrongs of September would have been worse than cowardice.

Protests were filed before the judges of election asking that all the regular tickets with the names of Currier, Kittredge and Gales on them should be thrown out. But Currier received a majority of the votes, it would have been a waste of time to protest.

shows democratic gains. This might also be put out of the list of doubtful states.

New York and New Jersey together have 45 electors. These electors to the 174 votes. Two hundred and one is sufficient to elect.

Mr. E. M. Moon reports the following weather record for October, 1896: Highest temperature 79; lowest temperature 10; on 27th; average temperature 50; prevailing direction of wind, south twenty-one days; clear days, six; fair days, fifteen; cloudy or stormy days, nine; rain, two days, 101 and 10th; snow, two days, 7th and 20th.

A. X. How and Co., wool commission merchants of Boston, write us under date of October 25th that the transactions of the week have been a fair average, upwards of two million pounds, but at the same time both buyers and sellers are indifferent. Most of our manufacturers are in no pressing want, and as credits have been somewhat disturbed by recent failures, buyers of wool are careful as to whom they are dealing, especially as there is no profit in the business at present prices.

It is a fact, however, that sales to the extent of 2,000,000 pounds in a week, which was considered a large business some years ago, now gives to the impression of a dull and quiet market, and the sales of the week have been the surest we have had to notice since last July. It is evident that the wool trade of the city continues to grow even if the rest have not been quite satisfactory.

But wool is not an exception. Nearly all leading articles are over than ever before known. There is very little change in prices, and quotations may be nominally the same as last week.

Mr. Lowell's thinking of publishing his Birmingham addresses and one or two other speeches in a new volume.

The Boston Academy talks about the falsification of a pseudo Byron, which impairs the effect of almost everything Joaquin Miller writes.

"A Country Gentleman" is to be the title of the new serial story by Mrs. Oliphant, which will be begun in the January number of The Atlantic.

Max O'Flaherty's new book, "The Daughter of John Bull," is to be brought out in English by Richard Smith of this city. Two of our recent editions were exhausted in one week in Paris.

Mr. John M. A. C. will soon bring out a Washington edition of Hawthorne's works. It will be printed in the same plates as their handsomely illustrated edition, and will be in twenty-four large volumes.

THE RESULTS WORLD.

Notes and Comments.

One of the most striking portions of Dr. J. S. P. Moon's recent address in memory of John Harvard was his account of the statement that John Harvard was an English Puritan minister. "That fact," said Dr. J. S. P. Moon, "is a part of the history of the city of Cambridge, and of the history of the state of Massachusetts, and of the history of the nation, and of the history of the world."

The statement that John Harvard was an English Puritan minister is a part of the history of the city of Cambridge, and of the history of the state of Massachusetts, and of the history of the nation, and of the history of the world.
